

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

U.S. NAVAL BASE, PEARL HARBOR, PAINT & OIL
STOREHOUSE

HABS HI-493

(U.S. Naval Base, Pearl Harbor, Naval Shipyard, Facility No. 90)
Avenue D near Seventh Street intersection
Pearl Harbor
Honolulu County
Hawaii

INDEX TO BLACK AND WHITE PHOTOGRAPHS

David Franzen, photographer, April 2001

- | | |
|----------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| HI-493-1 | Contextual view showing an oblique view of the east end and the south side. Taken from Facility 29. View facing north |
| HI-493-2 | View of the south side from Facility 29. View facing north |
| HI-493-3 | Oblique exterior view of the west end and the north side. View facing southeast |
| HI-493-4 | Detail of the exterior "self-closing" sliding door with vent above. View facing northeast |
| HI-493-5 | Interior of the ground floor storage area at the east end showing round and square columns and capitals. View facing south |
| HI-493-6 | Elevator and stairs by the main entry. View facing east |
| HI-493-7 | Elevator tower as seen on the second floor with the entry to the stairs on the left. View facing southwest |
| HI-493-8 | Detail of the center axis pivot-windows set over the main entry. View facing southeast |
| HI-493-9 | Detail of column capital. View facing west |